1. Reference List

The reference list is a list of the sources cited in the text of the research paper. All references cited in the text must be listed and vice-versa. References follow the text and footnotes at the end of the paper in a separate section headed References. References are double-spaced and are arranged alphabetically by author's last name. List books without an author alphabetically by first significant word in the title. Put book and periodical titles in italics (underline if italics are not available). If a date is unavailable use "N.d." in place of the date. Include both city and state for place of publication (except for New York) using U.S. Postal Code abbreviations. The first line of each source is flush with the left margin; second and succeeding lines are indented ½ inch (or five typewriter spaces) from the left margin.

2. Citations in Text

Basic Form for citations in the text include the last name of the author(s) and year of publication. Include page numbers when you quote directly from a work or refer to specific passages.

- If author's name is in the text, follow it with the publication year in parentheses:

...in another study by Duncan (1999).

- If the author's name is not in the text, enclose the last name and year in parentheses:

When the study was completed (Palmer 2000).

- Pagination follows year of publication after a colon, omitting the space between the colon and the page number:

...Banks (2001:22).

- Give both last names for joint authors.

...(Adler and Adler 1998).

- For three authors of the same work, give all last names in the first citation in the text; afterwards use the first author's last name plus "et al.":

First citation: ...pioneered the sociological study (Smith, Garcia, and Lee 1989).

Later: ...(Smith et al. 1989).

- For more than three authors, use the first author's last name and "et al" in the first and subsequent citations.:

(Snow et al. 2001).

- Quotations in the text must begin and end with quotation marks; the citation follows the end quote mark and precedes the period.

Visual research "has to be seen as only one technique to be employed by social researchers" (Banks 2001:177).

- Separate a series of references with semicolons. List the series in alphabetical or date order, but be consistent throughout the manuscript.

...(Green 1995; Mundi 1987; Smith and Wallop 1989).

3. Footnotes & Endnotes:

Use footnotes/endnotes only when necessary: to explain or amplify text, cite materials of limited availability, or be added to a table to present additional information.

Type footnotes in numerical order, double spaced, at the bottom of the manuscript page or in separate section headed "Endnotes." Begin each footnote with the superscript Arabic numeral to which it is keyed in the text.
