

Kindle FAQ

What is the Kindle Pilot Project?

The Kindle Pilot Project is a one-semester pilot program to explore how the Kindle can be used effectively as an alternate source of accessing what you need and to explore how new technologies can enhance your teaching and learning.

Who can check a Kindle out?

Any UConn faculty member, staff member, or currently enrolled student may check out a Kindle.

Where can I check out a Kindle?

You can check the Kindle out at the Babbidge iDesk (860.486.2518).

Where do I return the Kindle when I am done?

The Kindle must be returned to the Babbidge iDesk; it cannot be returned to a regional campus library or put in the bookdrops.

Can a Kindle be sent to a regional campus?

No, the Kindles can only be charged out at the Babbidge Library.

How long can I keep the Kindle?

You can keep it for two weeks.

Can I renew my Kindle?

You are allowed one renewal.

What are the fines?

Fines are $5 a day, beginning on the second day overdue.

What happens if I lose it?

Replacement costs are $299 for the Kindle Second Generation and $489 for the Kindle DX; you will also be charged a $25 processing fee.

May I reserve a Kindle?

If all of the Kindles are checked out, you may place a hold and be placed in the queue. You will receive an email when a Kindle becomes available.

May I add an item from my personal Amazon Kindle account to the Library's Kindle?

Yes, you may add your own materials. These will be removed from the Kindle device upon its return to the Library but will remain on your personal account.

Can I read a Google book on a Kindle?

Yes, you can read Google books on the Kindle DX model.