How to Prepare Bibliographic Citations: Modern Language Association

SOURCE: Modern Language Association. MLA Handbook. 8th ed., MLA, 2016.

The 8th edition of the MLA Handbook provides a “universal set of guidelines” for citing sources across all format types. The previous editions of the MLA Handbook gave a separate set of citation instructions for each format type. The 8th edition of the MLA Handbook focuses on core elements that are common to all formats, as follows:

Author

Title of Source (e.g. a book, article, chapter, song, or episode.)

Title of Container (e.g. a journal, a book, album, TV show.)

Other Contributors (e.g. editors, translator, series creator, producer.) Version

Number (e.g. vol. and issue of a journal.)

Publisher

Publication date

Location (e.g. page numbers or timestamp)

All of these elements go into creating a bibliographic citation for the “Works Cited” page. The list of “Works Cited” is the bibliography or the list of the sources cited in the text of the research paper and appears at the end of the paper.

In-Text Citations

In-Text citations are brief citations found after a direct quote or a paraphrase to indicate the source you consulted. They are located in the body of your work. In-Text citations are placed in parentheses. A typical in-text citation is composed of the element that comes first in the entry in the works-cited list (usually the author's last name) and a page number.

Reading is “just half of literacy. The other half is writing” (Baron 194).

When using the author's name in the sentence, only include the page number in parentheses.

According to Naomi Baron, reading is just half of literacy. The other half is writing” (194).
