Reference List

- References follow the text and endnotes in a separate section head "References." □ All references cited in the text must be listed and vice-versa. □ References should be double-spaced.
- List references in alphabetical order by authors' last names.
- Use hanging indention (the first line of the entry remains flush with the left margin, and the subsequent lines are indented ½" to the right).
- Invert the author's name (type the last name first). If there are two or more authors, invert only the first author's name.
- Arrange multiple items by the same author in order by year of publication, earliest year first.
- Distinguish works by the same author in the same year by adding letters (e.g. 1993a, 1993b, 1993c).
- Use italics for book and periodical titles (underline if italics are not available).
- If no date is available use "N.d." in place of the date.
- Include the state abbreviation only if the city of publication is not well known (e.g., New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles do not need a state abbreviation). For foreign cities provide the name of the country.

Reference Examples Books

The basic form for a book entry includes:

- Author's last name, followed by a comma and author's first name and middle initial, ending with a period.
- When a reference has two authors, a comma follows the first author's first name. □ Year of publication followed by a period.
- Title of book is italicized ending with a period. Follow with edition number if 2nd edition or later. □ City of publication (with state abbreviation if it's not a well known city), followed by a colon and name of publisher, ending with a period.

Journal Articles

The basic form for a journal article includes:

- Author's last name, followed by a comma and the first name and middle initial ending with a period. □ For multiple authors, invert last name of first author only.
- Use "and" between last two authors.
- Year of publication followed by a period.
- Title of article in quotations, ending with a period inside the closing quotation mark.
- Title of journal in italics, no period following.
- Volume number followed by issue number in parentheses, followed by a colon, page number(s) and period.
- Use p. or pp. before page number when citing print newspaper or magazine articles.

In-Text (Citation) References

General Formatting

Citations in the text include the last name of the author(s) and year of publication. Include page numbers when quoting directly from a work or referring to specific passages. Identify subsequent citations of the same source in the same way as the first.

- If the author's name is used in the text, put the date in parentheses.
When Duncan (1959) studied...
- If the author's name is not in the text, enclose last name and year in parentheses.
When these relationships were studied (Gouldner 1963)...
- Short quotations in the body of the manuscript should be surrounded by quotation marks.
- Pagination follows the year of publication after a colon, with no space between the colon and the page number.
Orol (2010:1).
- For joint authors, give both last names.
(Martin and Bailey 1988)
- For three authors, give all last names in the first citation in the text; in subsequent citations, use the first name and et al.
First citation: (Carr, Smith, and Jones 1962)...
Later citations: (Carr et al. 1962)
- For four or more authors, use the first author's last name plus et al. in all citations. (Nilson et al. 1962)
- For institutional authorship, supply the minimum identification needed from the beginning of the complete reference to find it in the reference list.
(U.S. Bureau of the Census 1963:117)
- Separate a series of references with a semicolon and either alphabetize or place them in chronological order, but be consistent throughout the manuscript.

(Burgess, 1982; Marwell et al. 1971) (Marwell et al. 1971; Burgess 1980)

- If the work cited was reprinted from a version published earlier, list the earliest publication date in brackets, followed by the publication date of the recent version used:

...affected the aged (Omran [1971] 2005).

- For unpublished papers, cite the date, or, if scheduled to be published soon, use forthcoming in lieu of a date. If no date is given, use N.d.

Previous studies by Smith (forthcoming) and Jones (N.d.) concluded....

- For archival sources, use abbreviations when possible.

(Meany Archives, LRF, Box 6, March 18, 1970).

- Text citations for e-resources generally follow the preceding guidelines.

Footnotes & Endnotes

- Footnotes and endnotes are used to cite materials of limited availability, expand upon the text, or to add information presented in a table.
- Endnotes are used more frequently than footnotes, but both should be used sparingly. As a general rule, use one or the other throughout the manuscript but do not mix them. (The exception to this rule is to use a footnote on the Title page and for tables, but use endnotes throughout the rest of the document for manuscripts being submitted to a sociology journal.)
- In the text, footnotes or endnotes, whichever are used, should be numbered consecutively throughout the essay with superscript Arabic numerals.
- Footnotes are placed at the bottom of the page on which the material being referenced appears. If using endnotes, at the end of the paper in a separate section following the references, type the endnotes in numerical order, double-spaced, as a separate section with the title Notes or Endnotes.
- Begin each note with the same superscripted number used in the text. Ex: <sup>8</sup> See the new ASA Style Guide for more information.
